

Opening at Istanbul's new art&design destination Akaretler; art ON the Gallery hosts Damien Hirst, Gary Hume, Terry Frost , Paul Morrison and a young Turkish talent Sencer Vardarman in a group show.

Bringing together the unique & limited editions of well known new conceptualist Damien Hirst's butterflies ; -a colorist & esthetical approach towards temporality- with Gary Hume's The Sister Troop, Paul Morrison's conceptual landscapes, Terry Frost's abstract series and Sencer Vardarman's photo collages which he handles catastrophes all over the world in an esthtical charm to be able to pull public's attention to these facts, between March 26th-April 23th.

Preparing for emerging photograpy artist Ali Alışır's 'Virtual Places' exhibition between April 28th-May28th, art ON,as a gallery considers its misson as contributing to society's artistic taste and perception, leveling them up into a global level and supporting young Turkish talents who speak 21.st century's artistic language the best through out their career, in Turkey and abroad by representing them through exhibitions and fairs while rendering foreign masters accesible to Turkish audience and collectors.

art ON is also offering services including art advisory, art&artist management, educations&seminars over art, art investment, management of collections&display, artistic solutions for corporations, art events, worldwide mediatorship.

The Gallery is open weekdays Tuesday-Friday, weekends Saturday between 11 am-7 pm.